

MERCWORKS

Mr. Kaplan, do you have a minute?

Do you?

There's still a line of souls out
the door with your name on 'em.

That's what I wanted to talk about, actually

I think I'm in over my head running the entire mammals division.

You asked for
this position, Sam

If you can't handle the job I will find someone who can, and we certainly will not need your services after that.

Who else could possibly
run mammals?
